From the Masterpiece Ephesians Sermon Series

Our Text for the Week of 6.21.20: Ephesians 6:1–9

The Gospel in our Homes

The context is the Apostle Paul writing to Gentile believers who were living in the general area of Asia Minor in and near the ancient city of Ephesus. At the end of chapter five, Paul wrote about marriage being the centerpiece of our homes and the importance of the gospel at the center of our marriages. Here in chapter six, he explains how parents get to be the first ones, and perhaps the most important ones to share that same gospel with their kids. What does that look like?

For the Gospel to be at the Center of our Homes:

It is a gospel we must see on display in our homes

It is a gospel we must teach consistently in our homes

It is a gospel we must live well beyond our homes

Questions for Group Discussion:

1. Why is it hard to admit our weakness and imperfections, especially with family?
2. How should parents teach and model obedience to their children?
3. What would you point to as evidence of the gospel in your home?
4. Should parents be the primary disciple-makers for their kids?
5. What do parents need to do to become the primary disciple-makers?
6. Describe a time when you had a difficult job or circumstance.

Was it possible to serve wholeheartedly, as unto the Lord, in that situation?

7. Do we perform our work as if Jesus were our supervisor?
8. How are you living the gospel beyond your home?

Final Thoughts and Closing Prayer:

What will you do to live more closely with your closest family this week?

How will I live differently this week because of this study?
