Our Text for the Week of 9.27: John 17:20–26

Prayer for an Ongoing Invitation

Often called the "High Priestly Prayer," the apostle John wrote down this special prayer of Jesus that would launch the ongoing movement we know to be the church. In part three of this prayer, Jesus prays over future believers with anticipation that the mission of the church would launch through the original disciples and become a movement of multiplying disciples. Have you been invited to be part of this movement? Read John 17:20–26...

Through Faith in Jesus, You are Invited:

To be United with God

To be on Mission with God

To be in Heaven with God

Questions for Group Discussion:

1. Describe a time when you have been invited and included.
2. Have you accepted Jesus' invitation to trust in Him?
3. How would you describe a church that is united with Jesus?
4. Describe a time when you have experienced conflict in church.
5. Why is a unified church more effective for God's mission?
6. Is it possible to have unity with a believer of a different perspective?
7. Do you think of eternal life as a destination or a journey?
8. If you're waiting on heaven, how can you be more faithful now?
9. What is a practical way to make Christ's name known?

Final Thoughts and Closing Prayer:

What will I do to be more prayerful this week as Jesus prayed for me?

How will I live differently because of this study?

Notes & Reflections:
