Christmas Through the Eyes of Mary Special Christmas Message, 12.19.21 Luke 1:26–38

Christmas day is quickly approaching and soon enough the day will come and go. What happens when the day is over? Is Christmas over for you just because the day is over? God intends for Christmas to have a life-changing impact, and we will see that as we see Christmas through the eyes of a young lady named Mary. Read Luke 1:26–38.

When Christmas day is over and done, these timeless truths still remain:

Christmas is the Delivery of God's Promises

Christmas is the Display of God's Power

Christmas is the Discovery of God's Purpose

Questions for Group Discussion:

1. What are some of your favorite traditions during the Christmas season?
2. What will you be doing on the day after Christmas?
3. How does Christmas relate to God's promise of salvation?
4. What other promises of God do you associate with Christmas?
5. What does Christmas teach us about God's power in our lives?
6. For what specifically do you need God's power in your life at this moment?
7. How do you see God's purposes intersect with your daily activities?

Final Thoughts and Closing Prayer:

What will I do to experience Christmas in a more spiritual way this year?

How will I live differently this week because of this study?

Notes & Reflections:
