Discussion Guide

I Don't Know, But God Does:

James 1:5

We live in a world that is filled with information and infinite access to information. Does that automatically mean that we have wisdom in how to understand and process that information? Consider the difference between knowledge and wisdom and where you need to turn for the wisdom you need for living well.

Read James 1:5.

1. Wisdom is Necessary
2. Wisdom is Available
3. Wisdom is from God

Questions for Group Discussion:

1. What is the difference between knowledge and wisdom?
2. Can a person have knowledge and still lack wisdom? Why?
3. Where do you normally turn to find wisdom when making a decision?
4. Discuss decisions you've made without seeking God, and the results.
5. How should we approach God for wisdom? Is it a one-time thing?
6. Why do we tend to not do the things we know are wise and for our good?
7. How has godly counsel through Scripture given you greater wisdom?

Final Thoughts and Closing Prayer:

What will you do to seek wisdom from God this week?

How will you live better and help others do the same because of this study?
